

Official descriptions for DC TV episodes airing the week beginning February 6th have been released, and it sounds like a fun week for fans of these superhero adaptations. There's nothing groundbreaking here as most of the episodes sound like filler in the grand scheme of things, though it'll be pretty fun to see Clive Yorkin on the small screen, especially given his ties to Iris West's death in the comic books. He was initially blamed for her murder before the Reverse-Flash was revealed as the true culprit, so perhaps Savitar will end up playing a role here instead. White Martians attacking in Supergirl should be fun, though it doesn't sound as if either Arrow or Legends of Tomorrow will move their respective overarching stories on too much. Which of these DC TV shows are you guys most excited to watch? Arrow - "Bratva" OLIVIER RETURNS TO RUSSIA — A mission takes Oliver (Stephen Amell), Felicity (Emily Bett Rickards) and team to Russia where they
