

Thanks again from a heads up by the people over at Tim Burton.JP we have a look at even more toy and movie concept art from Tim Burton's Superman Lives. A couple of days ago we got a look at a skull looking ship that would have been Brainiac's ship, and now with this group we get a couple more renderings of it. Along with his ship we also get a look at what a humanoid Brainiac might have looked like. One of the story lines from the failed movie would have had Superman dieing at the hands of the powerful Doomsday and thanks to some of the toy art we get a look at the direction they might have been going with as far as his look. Another piece of art has Superman fighting an alien in what looks to be a space ship, and of course it wouldn't be
