

Plot - The story centers on five friends holed up at a remote cabin where they discover a Book of the Dead with a demonic force unleashed possessing each until only one is left to fight for survival. - Bloody Disgusting When the Evil Dead remake begins filming in New Zealand this March you can expect a lot less humor than what the fans of the franchise are accustomed to. According to a source at Movie Hole the film will resemble Stanley Kubrick's adaptation of Stephen King's The Shining more than anything Sam Raimi produced. Laughs will be tough to come by as the characters in this version will be much more grounded in reality, which is something that Diablo Cody the screenwriter eluded to just a few days ago. I'm not sure how the fans of the series will react when they realize there is no Ash-like hero in the movie
