

Jarett Wieselman of insider.com was able to get an interview with the Suburgatory star, Jane Levy. She was named the new leading lady in the remake of the Evil Dead just last week. She has been on a lot of people's radar as an up and coming star, someone to watch out for. Now, she has her first big break and of course she is positively thrilled. "I'm so excited. I'm a big fan of the original. To me it's the scariest movie, ever. But this one is really different. They've changed it a lot, but it's still a pretty gory movie. My mom probably can't see it." "I think the humor in the first one came from the special effects of the time. I don't know that they meant it to be funny ... this one is not funny. It's definitely dark." Jarett Wieselman of insider.com bumped into Bruce "The Chin" Campbell, who
