

The Sun is reporting that Tony's ex-wife Georgina, who has been paying the mortgage since 1994 would like to gut the apartment of all Star Trek furnishings and sell the apartment as a non-Trekkie residence. When asked for a reaction to the painful news, Tony solemnly told The Sun, "To say I'm gutted is an understatement. It is my life's work – and it looks like it's going into a skip." The apartments features: 500-square foot interior, Designs based on the USS Voyage, Hand-crafted every piece of furniture, Command console, High-tech bathroom, Voice-activated blue lighting, Transporter room "I have always considered that of all the Starfleet ships, Voyager is, in terms of interior, the luxury liner of the galaxy." - Tony Alleyne IMAGES COURTESY OF DIGITAL TRENDS
