

Interview conducted by and copyright Edward Gross There was a moment back in July at San Diego Comic-Con when the cast of Syfy's Warehouse 13 had to cut their time in the press room short to get to their panel. The journalists present were bothered by the abrupt end to the session, but equally as annoyed was actor Eddie McClintock who stars in the show as agent Pete Latimer. In fact, he was moved to go to each table and apologize personally to the gathered journalists, suggesting that they contact his manager and promising one-on-ones with each of them. On the one hand it was something he didn't have to do, but on the other, it was exactly what he had to do. "It's a matter of respect," says McClintock matter of factly a couple of months later. "It felt a little disrespectful to me the way it was handled. You guys were
