

Recently I had a interview with the brilliant Kaylon Hunt, but don't take my word for it, be sure to check out Hero Story at the end of this article yourself! Everybody wants to be the hero, but do they have what it takes? Faced with his increasing popularity and demand to fulfill his responsibility as the new hero on the block, a young man wants to profess his love to his longtime girlfriend and reveal to her his super hero alter ego. Only, his plans are foiled when a new villain arrives and an unlikely ally intervenes. What made you want to do a superhero film? I wanted to do a superhero story because the genre is very relevant to me and is something I think everyone can relate to, even if they aren't generally a fan. I grew up on comic books and after-school cartoons. From Dragonball Z to Batman: The Animated
