

We have already seen Dave Rapoza's take on the Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles now we have a great pic of Tetsuo from Akira. Just the one character for now unfortunately, but hopefully we will get Kaneda, Kei and co at some point too. Kaneda's best friend, a member of Kaneda's gang, and eventually Kaneda's nemesis. He is involved in an accident at the very beginning of the story, which causes him to display immense psychic powers. He is soon recruited by the Colonel and given the designation #41. However, Tetsuo's mental instability increases with the manifestation of his powers, which ultimately drives him insane and shatters his friendship with Kaneda. Later in the story he becomes Akira's second-in-command, before he begins to lose control of his powers. Tetsuo is the main antagonist (and possible anti-hero) of Akira. Tetsuo is named after a Tetsujin 28 character, Professor Shikishima's son, Tetsuo Shikishima. Via Liveforfilms By TwitterButtons.com
