

Some may not admit it, but we all love a good bit of Disney Princess art here on CBM. We have seen em sexed up, mashed up with various Super-Heroes, drawn as real as possible etc. But I have never seem them shown in quite the same way as Jeffrey Thomas has here. The artwork is simply awesome, and I love the various "twisted" ways in which he has depicted each character. Also, I must not be as up on my princesses as I thought I was but who on Earth are Kidagakash and Tiana?
