

This impressive short film from Vincente Bonet Martinez focuses on a pair of love-struck Stormtroopers meeting in secret as a battle rages outside with the Rebel Alliance. It's interesting not just for it's premise, but also some nice dialog as both Troopers exchange views on why the Rebels are such "angry men". It's also pretty funny in places. The vid is tiny so be sure to click in the corner for full screen. One thing though..aren't all of the Stormtroopers clones? Hmmmm.. up your game at Gambling Insider
