

Thanks to Twitter's @RIMBreaks for the heads up, here is this fantastic motion comic based on the work of Brian Michael Bendis and Mark Bagley as well as a synopsis from its creators and the full cast list. A bunch of my very talented geek friends and I thought it would be fun to bring to life the recent "Death of Spider-Man" storyline from Marvel's Ultimate Comics: Spider-Man as a digital motion comic! It's such a heart-wrenching tale that exemplifies the heroism, bravery, love, and sense of responsibility of one 16-year-old boy who wouldn't give up. A lot of very talented people put a lot of work into this labor of love and I'm so proud to have worked with them!! For more details, visit www.arrivalpointproductions.com for info on the cast, crew, and project itself! PLEASE WATCH, ENJOY, and SPREAD IT AROUND!!! Peter Parker/Spider-Man: Andrew S. Bates Aunt May Parker: Jean Verdel Alexander Mary Jane Watson: September
