

alternative opening titles the dark knight rises from David Fernández Gómez on Vimeo. The Dark Knight Rises hype machine is slowly beginning to ramp up. Just yesterday, I reported that advanced IMAX screenings in NY were already sold out [L.A. is now sold out as well] and now we have this very inspired fan-made opening for the film. Also, the recently posted Lion King Rises mash-up has garnered over 1 million views on youtube [did anyone see that incredibly weird He-Man/Ghost Rider imitation?] making it a certified viral success. Expect more and more of these happenings to occur as we get closer to the July premiere date. And again, it's strongly urged that you check Fandango if you plan on seeing TDKR on a Thursday Midnight IMAX screening as additional movie tickets in more areas could appear on the site without warning. Running Time: Unknown Release Date: July 20 2012
