

The following fan teaser was put together by professional editor Julian Francis Adderley. The images are from the opening of the Jodie Foster movie Contact, only reversed and chopped up a bit. I'm not sure what the music is from but I think you'll agree it works brilliantly.. Very nice. The only thing I don't like are the "faster than a speeding bullet" subtitles. I know they are classic and maybe even iconic but imo they have become a bit stale. I guess it works fine for the purposes of a fan trailer but I wouldn't like to see them referenced in anything official from the movie unless it was with a wink and a nod. What do you guys think?
