

This is a video I created after sudden inspiration during school. I thought, "What if we were able to create something better than Spider-man 3?" So I thought of Green Hornet, and decided to mix the two together. Using Danny Crystal Clear as Harry Osborn (James Franco), I mixed the Spider-man franchise with Green Hornet. Peter's continuous complaining in Spider-Man 3 only helps add to it. Let me know what you think of this video, as well as both Green Hornet and Spider-man 3 in the comments below! Thanks!
