

It appears that many fans are not digging Marvel's latest cartoon incarnation of the web-crawler, known as Ultimate Spider-man. After 6 episodes, with mostly negative reviews, fans have started voicing their hate directly to the show runners, through popular social media. While visiting the facebook pages of Marvel's head of TV, Jeph Loeb, as well the writers of Ultimate Spider-man show, Man of action, i noticed quite a few messages attacking the show and sometimes Loeb himself. Below are couple examples (you can read more by checking the facebook pages of the show runners): " Ultimate spider-man is horrible! This is not a spier-man show. Where's parker's money problem? where is the parker luck? where is spider-man learning from his uncle ben's last words? This show is a big "FK YOU" to all of spiderman fans who were waiting for this show. and by the way, the spider-cycle SUX and makes no sense. Seriously worst

Read more: <http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/marveltv/news/?a=59135>