

Warner Bros. is hoping that Fantastic Beasts and Where to Find Them will launch a franchise spanning five movies, but for that to happen, the first will obviously have to be a success. Luckily for them, the vast majority of reviews are positive so far! The lowest score is 3*, but most are of the 4* and 5* variety, so that's definitely a good start for the film which is set to be released on November 13th. There are no spoilers in the excerpts below, but it goes without saying that they give at least a few details away about what we should expect from Fantastic Beasts. Interestingly, it seems like the majority agree that the franchise could have done with a new director at the helm and it doesn't sound like it manages to compare with the Harry Potter movies. We'll find out for ourselves soon enough! It's possible (and I'd say likely) that she will build on the foundation that Fantastic
