

The Leading Man is to be adapted for cinema by Universal Pictures. Fast and Furious 5 director Justin Lin has been hired by the studio to develop the project for the big screen, Bleeding Cool reports. Comic's Premise - "There's more to the world's hottest actor than sexy starlets, tabloid gossip and primo parts because Nick Walker isn't just a Hollywood hunk, he's also a superspy. "When a routine investigation off the coast of France turns up a terrorist training facility, Nick must juggle espionage and screen time in this explosive and astonishing adventure." The creators were interviewed by comicbookresources, here is an excerpt. "'The Leading Man' is Nick Walker. He's the hottest actor in Hollywood, and, unknown to all, he's also the world's greatest super spy. He works for the Agency, a real talent agency that only takes a few select clients. Throughout the history of Hollywood, the Agency has secretly trained some of Hollywood's
