

Regardless of which studio ends up making Daredevil, it's vital that they find the right actor to bring Matt Murdock to life on the big screen. Back in 2003, Ben Affleck failed to win over the majority of fans and critics, and in the near decade long absence of The Man Without Fear from the big screen, a lot of names have been thrown around as to who exactly should play the iconic Marvel superhero. He may not be as popular as The Amazing Spider-Man, or have action on the scale of The Avengers, but any fan of the character will tell you that a film starring Daredevil has the potential to be one of the best comic book movies ever. 5. MATT DAMON At 41 years of age, if Matt Damon wants to play a superhero, he needs to seize the opportunity as soon as possible. Is he too old? Not
