www.turtlewithlemonade.com Batmobile This listing is for a completely customized crime-fighting machine. The Batmobile comes standard with machine gun turrets, smoke bombs, a turbo jet engine and a batpod ejector vehicle in case of an emergency. This car is jet black and comes with a stealth mode as well, making it virtually invisible at night. This car is perfect for scaling rooftops, running down villains or just picking up your dry cleaning. Notice: If you've checked the Carfax report on this vehicle and are cautious about buying it, do not worry. Yes, in 1992 the computer system was hacked into by a bird-man, and in 2005 it was involved in a high-speed police chase, and it was self-destructed as recently as 2008, but all the necessary repairs have been made along with a number of upgrades, including new features and a completely
