

Christina Ricci and Miguel Ferrer are the two latest additions to the upcoming Teen Titans: The Judas Contract direct-to-video feature from WB Animation (per THR). They'll join Sean Maher (Nightwing), Kari Wahlgren (Starfire), Jake T. Austin (Blue Beetle), Taissa Farmiga (Raven), Brandon Soo Hoo (Beast Boy) and Stuart Allan (Damian Wayne) who are all reprising roles from previous DCAU releases. WB Animation veteran director (and DCEU storyboard artist) Jay Oliva directs from a script penned by comic scribe J.M. DeMatteis and Green Lantern: TAS writer, Ernie Altbacker. As seen in the images below and above, we have our first look at Terra and Deathstroke, the two characters Ricci and Ferrer are likely playing. UPDATE: It is with sad hearts that we report that Judas Contract will be one of Miguel Ferrer's final roles, as the 61-year-old actor passed away moments ago. He was best known for roles in the original RoboCop film, Iron Man 3, Rio 2, NCIS: Los Angeles and Crossing Jordan. He also

Read more: https://www.comicbookmovie.com/teen\_titans/first-look-and-voice-cast-for-teen-titans-the-judas-contract-revealed-a148305