

David E. Kelley who tried to adapt Wonder Woman for a television show on NBC, but it crashed in burned before even one episode aired has decided to take another crack at the character. He still has his show Harry's Law, which stars Kathy Bates, and he is introducing a character who is mentally unstable. The role, which will be played by Erica Durance is said to believe she is Wonder Woman, and even wears a costume that resembles the one Adrienne Palicki was seen wearing. Durance told TVLine "I will say this: There's a whole difference to being ready to wear Underoos and being ready to wear a pair of pants that are slim-fitting. I am grateful that I am wearing the pants. And I like the new costume." The real name of Durance's character is reportedly Annie Bilson; a psychologically damaged young woman who takes on Wonder Woman's identity as
