

Daniel Webber - who will play a young veteran named Lewis Walcott on Marvel's The Punisher - shared the following pic to his Instagram page along with the caption: "Welcome to team Punisher." Though the cast are not in costume, the image does provide our first look at (from left to right) Jason R Moore (Curtis Hoyle), Michael Nathanson (Sam Stein), Webber, Amber Rose Revah (Dinah Madani), Ebon Moss-Bachrach (Micro), Jaime Ray Newman (Sarah Lieberman), Jon Bernthal (Frank Castle), Deborah Ann Woll (Karen Page) and Ben Barnes (Billy Russo) together. In addition, Netflix has released a "Wreck the Halls" holiday greeting vid, which shows Jessica Jones, Luke Cage and Daredevil doing what they do best. There footage is all from previous seasons on their respective shows, but it's still a fun watch. The Punisher is set to blast his way back to Netflix for his solo series late next year.

Welcome to team Punisher. #thepunisher #jonbernthal #marvel #netflix #2017
#frankcastle A photo posted by Daniel Webber

Read more: <https://www.comicbookmovie.com/punisher/first-look-at-the-cast-of-marvel-the-punisher-assembled-plus-new-netflix-a147619>