

1) The tail of The Leviathan. Remember that call sheet which mentioned where "the Leviathan" came to rest in the street? Well this is probably our first glimpse of it: Of course, the question which still remains is whether it's an actual creature, or just a ship made to look like one (a bit like dragons on viking boats)? 2) The enemy invaders. There's no certainty that they'll all look like this (the army could include multiple races after all), but the one that we can see reasonably clearly seems to have Skrull-like ears (either that or it's part of the armour/helmet design), blue skin, three toes, and a green patch (possibly glowing?) on the chest. None of the races in the comics would match these features exactly, but perhaps some artistic license has been taken? In that case, it's conceivable that they might be Kree or Skrull warriors after all. 3)
