The popular TV show 24 has been fighting to make its way onto the big screen for some time now. But News came saying that Fox passed on a movie script written by Billy Ray. But In an interview with EXTRA, 24 star Kiefer Sutherland was questioned about the recently shelved movie based of show. Kiefer went on to state that the film was going in a positive direction and even revealed a possible start for filming in December Or January. Now The Hollywood Reporter have had a chat with a publicist from Fox Studios who has denied Sutherland's positive comments: "Unfortunately, Kiefer is overly optimistic," the Fox publicist replied to a query from THR. "The project is still in development, with no director attached. All the other details have been reported." So it looks like 24 The Movie is still just an idea at this point and may
