

Game Of Thrones already did have a spin off comic called The Hedge Knight that has been around for a while, long before the show went into production. But now the actual story of the power struggles in Westeros will be hitting our shelves in comic form. From iFanboy.com.. The Game of Thrones comics will be sold montly from Dynamite Entertainment, and packaged into graphic novels by Bantam Books. The issues will be adapted and scripted by Daniel Abraham, and illustrated by Tommy Patterson. Covers will be provided by Mike S. Miller and a guy you might have heard of, Alex Ross. This is great news. No word on whether the comics will retell the story we have already seen in the tv show, or movie on and adapt the second book in the series A Clash Of Kings. Either way, look for it around September. By TwitterButtons.com
