

Across the pond this evening Gary Oldman won Best Actor for Tinker Tailor Soldier Spy at the Jameson Empire Awards in London. After receiving his award he was whisked over to the press room to field questions. That is when he gave a very candid interview, declaring that the Golden Globes are "bent." He also believes the Harry Potter franchise should've been honored this year at the Oscars and the BAFTAs. Russ from Red Carpet TV News also asked about the 'problems' with the Bane (played by Tom Hardy) in Christopher Nolan's third batman movie, The Dark Knight Rises. He wasn't aware of the issues and thought that all should be fine with Nolan at the helm. he describes the movie as 'epic' but not just 'spectacle'. He then talks about how he looks after his scripts. The Dark Knight Rises hits theaters July 20th 2012 and stars Christian Bale as Bruce Wayne/Batman,
