

Not much in the way of news, but we have many Oldman fans here who should find this of interest. The amount of great performances Gary Oldman has given over the years is hard to count. Even when his movie choices have been a bit on the dodgy side, he pretty much always delivers and more often than not excels. After years of fans campaigning for some Oscar recognition he was finally nominated for best actor in a leading role for Tinker Taylor Soldier Spy. Of course CBM fans know him best as Jim Gordon in Christopher Nolan's Bat-flicks. In an interview with The Wrap Oldman discusses his past roles and how he feels about being nominated. He says that in the past he has stepped away from the Oscar campaigning but now since he has been nominated, he is determined not to let the stress get to him and just
