

Geekshow has posted an interview with someone who has seen the new Wonder Woman pilot episode. The interview begins with a non-spoiler review of the pilot before moving on to SPOILER heavy discussions. You can listen to the interview/review HERE The pilot features 2 costumes; the one seen in the set pictures with cloth like pants and red boots, and the classic "bathing suit" which is described as looking the better of the two by a million miles. The costume she ends the pilot wearing is the classic "bathing suit" costume. The one that was first shown in Entertainment Weekly, with the blue boots and shiny pants, does not appear in the pilot. Despite some cheesy dialogue most of the actors are described as good, especially Adrienne Palicki (Diana Prince/Wonder Woman) and Tracie Thoms (Etta). However Justin Bruening (Steve Trevor) is described as "awful", lacking charisma and he even suggests recasting or scrapping the character
