

Most of this German trailer is exactly the same as the version that was released a week ago, except for two additional scenes. The first added scene begins fifty-six seconds in. The scene is from the previously seen encounter involving Captain America in the Hellicarrier lashing out at Tony Stark, but this version is different. I can't understand the language so I'm sure what the additional dialogue is, but it is new. You can also tell the scene has been cut differently because Black Widow has been included in the reaction shot to Tony Stark's clever retort. The second additional scene is both old and new. I'll explain, at the 2:11 mark in the video you'll see a scene that was exclusively shown to New York Comic Con attendees. This is a scene that was attached to the end of the sizzle reel that they showed us. It is quite funny
