

It's Monday, which means the latest issue of Angel Grove High's school newspaper, The Roar, is out and it's filled with juicy new details and photos from Lionsgate's highly anticipated Power Rangers reboot. The viral site spotlights Billy this week and confirms that his personality is more or less in line with his 1993 counterpart as he's also considered to be one of Angel Grove High's best and brightest students. However, it ends on an intriguing note by revealing that he finds himself in detention under mysterious circumstances, something we'll undoubtedly learn more about come next March. Elsewhere, we learn that Trini is not exactly a new student, and has been in Angel Grove for over a year, but hasn't had an easy time making friends. Finally, the site sheds some serious light on Jason revealing that his predicament is due to a prank gone wrong, which as seen in the trailer, wrecked his car and got him suspended from the football team for

Read more: <https://www.comicbookmovie.com/action/get-a-new-look-at-elizabeth-banks-as-rita-repulsa-in-these-new-photos-from-a146415>