

The first trailer for Luc Besson's Valerian and the City of a Thousand Planets is set to debut at some point tomorrow, but ahead of that we have this early peek at Rihanna's enigmatic character. Details on this stunning lady are sparse, but EW reports that the 1920s flapper getup we see her in below is actually just one of several different personas she inhabits in the movie. "Rihanna was my first wish," Besson explains. "First, because of her voice and the way she smiles and looks and how she expresses herself. Second, because you know she won't be intimidated on the set. She plays stadiums with 100,000 people. You know that girl isn't shy about the camera and the crew and all this." Valerian (Dane DeHaan) and Laureline (Cara Delevingne) are special operatives for the government of the human territories charged with maintaining order throughout the universe. Valerian has more in mind than a professional relationship with his partner- blatantly chasing after
