

The CW has released episode descriptions for the week beginning February 27th, and while Legends of Tomorrow is M.I.A., we still have an awful lot to look forward to. For starters, Dean Cain's Jeremiah Danvers will finally be returning to the world of Supergirl, though he may not actually be the real deal! In The Flash, the two-part Gorilla Grodd event will be wrapping up with an attack on Central City, and it sounds like we can expect Jesse Quick to become a permanent member of Team Flash, something which will take the current numbers of speedsters in the show up to three. Is that too many, though? We'll see, but over in Arrow, Oliver Queen is going to have his hands full with Vigilante after he targets Star City's Mayor and once again winds up in the crosshairs of the Emerald Archer. Which of these shows are you guys most excited about? Let us know your thoughts in the comments section below. Supergirl
