

Last Monday's midseason premiere of Gotham teased the resurrection of the psychotic Jerome, who will most likely go on to become the show's incarnation of Batman's most iconic foe, The Joker. Though we glimpsed his grotesque visage via some pre-recorded footage, the character is only set to make his grand entrance during tonight's episode, and TV Insider has debuted some official stills of the returning villain. "I really can't wait for people to see it," Monaghan told the site. "We have a few different looks [for him]...it looks really great. Our make-up special effects designer Mike Maddi did a phenomenal job."

DARKNESS PREVAILS ON AN ALL-NEW "GOTHAM" MONDAY, JANUARY 23, ON FOX On the run from Gordon and Bullock, Dwight (guest star David Dastmalchian) tries to revive Jerome (guest star Cameron Monaghan) and, in turn, activates his acolytes around Gotham City. Meanwhile, Selina's mom's (guest star Ivana Milicevic) intentions in Gotham are revealed, and the power play between Penguin and Nygma escalates as Barbara's plans
