

There are some cool new shots in this trailer featuring glimpses of that previously describes meeting between Black Widow and Bruce Banner as well as a few more action shots of Thor and Cap etc. There are some more blink and you'll miss em shots too. Of course unless you speak German you won't understand any of the new dialog, but as usual, I'm sure there will be a CBMer that will translate for us in the comments section. Anyway, enjoy. Screencaps of the new footage on the way too.. Via Marvel & The Avengers UK Facebook page. up your game at Gambling Insider
