

We'll probably get a new look at Guardians of the Galaxy Vol. 2 at some point in the next couple of months, but for the time being, some new toys have surfaced which may very well show off some key scenes from the highly anticipated sequel. As you can see below, these LEGO sets show the Guardians battling Ayesha, a character we now know will have gold hair and skin just like in the comic books. They also show Rocket and Mantis taking on the Ravagers, while the Milano battling The Abilisk is probably the one action scene we know will most definitely be in the movie. No doubt the biggest draw, however, is the fact that two out of three of these come bundled with a tiny Baby Groot, a LEGO minifigure which you're going to have to be very careful not to lose while you're building these. Starring Chris Pratt, Zoe Saldana, Dave Bautista, Bradley Cooper, Vin Diesel, Karen Gillan, Michael Rooker,
