

Attending the Toronto Film Festival premiere of Thanks For Sharing, her sex addition flick starring her Avengers co-star Mark Ruffalo, actress Gwyneth Paltrow vaguely discussed her reprisal as 'Pepper Potts' in Iron Man 3. Seemingly unsure if she'll be interested in reprising the role after completing the Shane Black-directed third installment, namely in Marvel's The Avengers Joss Whedon-helmed sequel, she tells E! News: "I just came off of Iron Man 3, which is as special effects-y and action-y as it gets, so to do something like [Thanks For Sharing] where it's really small, funny and exciting, is really great. I don't know [about returning for The Avengers sequel], I'm getting old for this shit, you know what I mean?" Described as a "technological crisis thriller," set in the world of international war, arms & terror, Marvel Studios' "Iron Man 3" stars Robert Downey Jr., Gwyneth Paltrow, Don Cheadle, Guy Pearce,
