

Despite believing late last year she wouldn't appear due to filming approaching, in a recent chat on the "Something For the Weekend" cooking show, actress Gwyneth Paltrow seemed more than likely sure she'll reprise her 'Pepper Potts' role in the Shane Black-directed Iron Man 3 film. And more surprisingly, the actress was probable of firstly appearing in Joss Whedon's actioner Marvel's The Avengers. I'll probably be in Iron Man 3, Ill possibly be very briefly in the Avengers... maybe... we'll see. While it may just be a brief appearance, maybe considered a cameo, It'll be refreshing to see Pepper Potts on the screen again, not having to wait 'til 2013. Now it'd be even more interesting to see James Rhodes in the mix. What do you think? Marvel's The Avengers picks up when an unexpected enemy emerges that threatens global safety and security. And Nick Fury, director of the international peacekeeping agency known as
