

Hey Wonderfriends!!! Wonderverse has received news from Andy Mangels that "Today, October 25th, is the "real world" 70th birthday of Wonder Woman!" That's right! America's Super-heroine Number One first appeared on newsstands on this day back in 1941. Andy Mangels explained: "The Amazing Amazon first appeared in a 9-page back-up story in All-Star Comics #8, written by her creator William Moulton Marston, and drawn by H.G. Peter. The book had a cover-date of Dec-Jan 1941-1942, but because comics were/are sold months in advance of their cover-date, it first went on sale on newsstands on October 25, 1941. The first issue of Sensation Comics (cover-dated January 1942) went on sale on November 7, 1941." Happy Birthday Wonder Woman! Be sure to check out www.WomenOfWonderDay.com and www.WonderWomanMuseum.com Special thanks to Mr. Andy Mangels for always continuing to "Share the Wonder!!!" So do visit the Women of Wonder.com website, Wonder Woman Museum, wonderverse.tripod.com and <http://wwwnew52.blogspot.com> and subscribe to the best

Read more: http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/wonderverse/news/?a=48870&t=Happy_70th_Birthday_iWonder_Womani