

Most of the talk for this movie has revolved around the stars, but what about the skinny actor that nobody will see because Chris Evans face is superimposed over his own. I have to say one of the highlights from the trailer and reasons I'm seeing this movie right away is to see the 98lb Steve Rogers, not the big star spangled hero. I'm in awe of how seamless the look is, it doesn't feel cheesy or visually jarring. Scenes with pre-transformation, Steve Rogers It's really interesting because Leander Deeny, who plays Skinny Steve, would watch the takes between Chris and I, and he would mimic Chris absolutely, down to where he would breathe in the dialogue. So it meant that when they put Chris' face on his body, that every time the face takes a breath, the body's also taking a breath. He was so intricate. Leander was very committed to it. He's
