

If you are a head of a studio and you want to remake a horror movie you call upon writer, Todd Farmer (Drive Angry 3D, My Bloody Valentine & Jason X) and his partner, Patrick Lussier (director of My Bloody Valentine & Drive Angry) Not exactly a glowing resume, but executive at studios seem to be pleased with their work. Well, both were given the task of trying to reboot Clive Barker's classic horror franchise Hellraiser. The task appears to have been to daunting and the pitch and concept art that went with it didn't get them the gig. By the way anyone not familiar with the term Cenobite, read below. The Cenobites are extradimensional beings who appear in the works of Clive Barker. The Cenobites vary in number, appearance, and motivations depending on the medium (film, comic book, etc.) in which they appear. The involvement of multiple parties in the production
