

We met Dustin a year or so ago at a comic convention and he has been a great friend to SuperHeroStuff ever since. He never ceases to impress us with his generous spirit, great attitude and willingness to help everyone and anyone he meets. He has a belief, as do we, that anyone can be a superhero if they put their mind towards doing great things and helping people that need it. Dustin is also a cosplayer, a cosplayer with a really awesome Superman costume. He is going to be putting that costume to just about the best use I can imagine. In just a few short weeks, Dustin is going to head out onto the road trip of a lifetime. He is going to travel to all 48 continental United States as well as several places in Canada and visit sick children in hospitals. He
