

Captain America: The First Avenger and Thor stars Chris Evans and Chris Hemsworth recently talked with John Millar from Sunday Mail. While they discussed many things related to the films that we have all heard dozens of times, I did find a couple of fresh points in the conversation I thought were worth sharing with all of you. Hemsworth on learning to appreciate comic books... "I'd never really read a comic book. I never came across them. It's funny but, since I moved to America, you see comic book stores everywhere, far more than I saw growing up in Australia." "But since I got Thor, I've dived into reading this stuff and it's incredible - great writing, incredible art work. "So my hat goes off to an art form that I came to a little late. But I'm very excited to be part of it now." Evans on fan expectations... "At the end of
