

We are off to head down to Charlotte, North Carolina to hang out at HeroesCon 2012! Apparently this was the 30th Anniversary for HeroesCon but for us this was the first... This show mainly consisted of artists and vendors, which provided SuperHeroStuff with a place to sell our wares and to walk around and see some of the other booths! Upon the opening of the show we learned that right behind our booth were artists Mike Mignola and Mark Brooks. It was amazing seeing them work. All of the artists that were at HeroesCon are extremely talented artists. Upon day 1 Mark started on a giant Phoenix painting for the annual art auction. Upon the last day of the show we got to see the finished Mark Brooks Phoenix painting. In our humble opinion it is awesome. It ended up selling for $9,500 with all of the proceeds
