

We recently had our first official full-colour still from Logan, but it's back to those stylish black and white snaps for the time being. This latest one was shared by Hugh Jackman himself, and gives us a new look at the ageing former X-Man as he sits alone in a hotel room. Knowing next to nothing about the film's plot makes it almost impossible to put the pic in context, but Logan's suit appears to be in one piece, which suggests this scene takes place before the fighting starts.

We might just get another trailer or TV spot before the year is out, so keep an eye out for that. In the meantime, check out the new image below. Logan stars Hugh Jackman, Patrick Stewart, Richard E. Grant, Boyd Holbrook, Stephen Merchant, Dafne Keen, Eriq La Salle, Elise Neal, and Elizabeth Rodriguez. The final Wolverine movie is set to claw its way into theaters on March 3, 2017.
