

Famous companies Archaia Entertainment and Panelfly are teaming-up for the launch of Immortals: Gods and Heroes HD. For the iPad and iPhone, Immortals: Gods and Heroes HD grants access to a variety of exclusive Immortals content. "We are very excited to launch the Immortals: Gods and Heroes iPad app with Panelfly," said PJ Bickett, CEO of Archaia Entertainment. "In creating the graphic anthology, we wanted to build something unique to compliment the theatrical release, something that would stand head-and-shoulders above traditional graphic novel tie-ins. Working with Panelfly, we have created something extraordinary and immersive that complements the reading experience while supplementing the film itself. We are excited to expand the reach of our content beyond books and film, to delight fans with this new and immersive entry into the Immortals universe."
