

With Catwoman and Cheetah confirmed for Injustice 2, following yesterday's Swamp Thing reveal, the total number of playable characters in the NetherRealm fighting game currently stands at 24 (including character skin-swaps). At this rate of character additions, the more highly debated issue is not going to be which heroes and villains are in the Gods Among Us sequel but who was left out! Injustice 2 will be released for the Xbox One and PS4 on May 16, 2017.
