

The extended edition of Suicide Squad is set to hit Blu-ray next month, and in anticipation, Collider and IGN have released a couple of new featurettes. As we know, quite a few of Jared Leto's scenes as The Joker wound up being cut from the film, and we get a glimpse of some of that excised material here - a highlight being the notoriously method actor improvising some dialogue during the Harley torture scene. There's also interviews with Leto, Margot Robbie and director David Ayer. Please enable Javascript to watch this video
