

International buyers have been attending the L.A. Screenings sampling the new U.S. television shows. Deadline is reporting that some series are receiving some solid buzz, but there doesn't seem to be any standouts. One of the shows that is garnering high praise from the international community is CW's Arrow. Among the new shows getting thumbs-up is Warner Bros' superhero CW drama Arrow. "It was surprisingly good," said Ruediger Boess, head of acquisitions for Germany's ProSiebenSat1. "It's darker and older than the standard CW shows, and its very well cast." - Deadline CW's Arrow stars Stephen Amell as Oliver Queen/Green Arrow, Katie Cassidy as Dinah "Laurel" Lance, Susanna Thompson as Moira Queen, and David Ramsey as John Diggle.

Read more: <http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/nailbiter111/news/?a=60370>