

Many thanks to our friends over at Digital Spy for the following excerpts from a review they conducted with the actor recently. To read the whole thing, where Gruffudd addresses the rumors that he is connected to the role of James Bond, be sure to click on the link at the bottom of the page to head on over to the site! On His Association With The Fantastic Four Franchise And What He Makes Of The New Wave Of Comic Book Movies: I'm thrilled. I was reading an article last night about Thor's unbelievable opening for Marvel. It overtook X-Men and Fantastic Four - like twice as much globally on opening weekend as Fantastic Four and X-Men did over the entire run. It's a bit sad. It's bittersweet. They had plans to make a third movie but I guess because it's a business model - and it is a business that these guys

Read more: http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/joshw24/news/?a=39479&t=Ioan Gruffudd Talks iFantastic Fouri Reboot Comments On Chris Evans As Captain America