

Director Sam Mendes will pay homage to the Indiana Jones rope bridge battles. 007 will have it out with a villain on a rickety affair like in Temple Of Doom. - The Sun Well The Sun isn't exactly the New York Times, but even a broken clock is right twice a day, so you never know. They don't even report that this information came from a quote or a source, they just state it as fact so I'm not sure what to tell you. As for the possible scene being remade, I would be extremely happy to see Sam Mendes do his own version. It was the highlight of the Temple of Doom, which was the second Indy film in the franchise, and to many is the third best of the four.

A fun fact about the bridge used in the Temple of Doom is that the bridge actually was suspended a
